REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL

CONVENTION. The Convention of the Union Republican party of the First Congressional District of West Virginia will be held in the town of Moundarille, Marshall county, August 22d, 1878, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congres, and also for the transacting of such other business as may come before the Convention. The Union Républican party of the District is requested to appoint delegates to the Convention from the Counties comprising the District at such time and place as may suit the convenience of the people of the several Counties.

tee of the First Congressional District.

GEO. EDWARDS, Chairman

The Platform of the Third Party. The incongruous elements which have gotten together in the several State Conventions lately held, to form the "National Greenback Labor Party," are fitly which is put forth as its platform. The gave her $50. financial clauses leave no lower depth for any rival to plunge into. The greenevery law to pay anything else for govent bonds, or any other obligation, is to be repealed at one fell stroke. All national bonds are to be called in at once, and thus a new issue of $1,780,735,650 of additional greenbacks is to be immediately authorized. The national banks will be thankful that they are to be taken out of the way of such a flood. Probably when substitute greenbacks for bonds, not a member knew the amount of currency which would thus be added. The ex treme absurdity of this proposition is the best guarantee that no man will ever seriously try to write in law what is here embodied in a resolution.

The demand for land limitation laws, for a commission to look after railway charges, and for a bureau to gather statistics of labor, need not startle any one, These are problems which must engage legislators, and they deserve the most thoughtful consideration. The proposition with reference to the tariff will sat isfy the most pronounced protectionist and the suggestion of internal improve ments is broad enough to cover all tha any advocate of governmental expendi ture may have to propose.

The abolition of the contract system in prisons, the renewal of an income tax and the reduction by one-half of all salaries over $1,000 a year, are called for to

Upon the finances, the platform is just to be sugaries of all the Batlers and Voorsees and Coopers and Allens, and presents the essence in the last analysis. With reference to property neither communism nor socialism lifts its head, Questions of taxation and administration are presented which are legitimate subjects for discussion, and the utterance of the convention, although such as we can in the convention, although such as we can have a determined of contestants for the plants for the Creditor of this fact will be examinated in this examination, as evidenced b

On the whole the platform is evidently the work of a raw apprentice in political furniture. He has patched in such pieces of stuff as he found 1 lying around loose. The job is a queer thing to look at, and unfit for use as a whole.

We clip the following from the Banner of July 18th, published at Boulder, Colorado:

In another item in this issue we mention a party of four persons from West Virginia. Since the above went to press, the party have arrived from a trip through is portion of our mining sections, and are convinced that Boulder county must be a prominent portion of the State, at least, so much so, that they are perfectly satisfied with its mineral deposits. CUTLERY AT AUCTION.

Percuptory Trade Nale of the Combined Manufacturers' Production.

A peremptory sale of trade cutlery, carvers, butchers' knives, &c., for cash, by order of the Cutlery Association of the United States, was held in the city of New York on Thursday, at the auction rooms of Messrs. Bissell & Welles, No. 83 Chambers street. The offering consisted of about 6,000 gross table cutlery, 6,005 pairs carvers, and 1,500 dezen butchers' knives, &c., made up of involces from the Beaver Falls Cutlery Company, Lamson & Goodnow Manufacturing Company, Meriden Cutlery Company, Lamson & Goodnow Manufacturing Company, There was a large attendance of buyers from all parts of the country, and the blighting was spirited throughout. Company. There was a large attendance of buyers from all parts of the country, and the bidding was spirited throughout,
fair prices being realized. Mr. Engene Bissell officiated as auctioneer, and previous to commencing the sale made a plessant address, urging liberal bida, as the goods were all first quality and of standard patterns. About twelve hundred lots of table cuttery were sold, in quantities of from four to one hundred

PERSONS AND THINGS.

"He was the First MAN that Horace Greeley ever told to git West; likewise he was hanged for stealing a muel," is the record on a humble tomb in Kansas. A $10,000 diamond necklace is on exhibition in the window of a Chicago jew-eller, which, it is said, an enamored resi-

A very simple pass-out check ticket has been devised at Paris. It bears in for any rival to plunge into. A man at Liverpool was recently arrested in his bed at 3 A. M. for non-payment of school board fees, it being the custom of the officials to make these arrested in his bed at 3 A. M. for non-payment of school board fees, it being the custom of the officials to make these arrerest at night, when they are certain of finding their men at home. So agitated was the prisoner on this occasion that on reaching the jail he died of heart disease. The Coroner's jury censured strongly the mode of precedure of the officers.

The resolution with reference to schools is somewhat muddled, It demands agricultural, mechanical and commercial schools, but concludes with a requisition for "good common school education for the poorest in our State at the least possible expense." The protest against the frequent change is text-books and against the support of other schools out of the State funds, is intelligible and commendable. The declaration for the maintenance of the purity of the ballot, is both significant and encouraging.

instructed the young men to prepare their solutions and hand them in at a specified time, with their signatures attached thereto. This proceeding was so manifestly unfair and improper that Professor Nash promptly retired from the Board, declining to serve further unless a different system of examination was adopted which would hermetically seal every avenue to fraud, and make the contest what Colonel Wilson promised it should be, namely, a fair and impartial investigation of the capabilities of the several candidates, and the selection of the one who proved, himself best qualified to fill the place. The peremptory withdrawal of Professor Nash, and the pointed expression of dissatisfaction on the part of several other interested parties, brought the proceedings to a premature close, and there being nothing else to do, Col. Wilson addressed the young gentlemen present, reviewing the situation, and repeating his desire that the examination should be conducted in a spirit of justice and impartiality. He then proposed that the applicants should decide for themselves whether the present examination should be continued, or a future time and place be appointed to decide the contest.
